2. SHOOTING RANGE RULES

a. Procedures at the range

- (1) Order: Load and make ready. The shooter wears the ear and eye protections, loads the weapon and prepares himself in the starting position as required by the stage.
- (2) Order: Are you ready?. If the shooter is not ready, he shall say Not Ready.
- (3) Order: Standby. The fire command shall follow within 5 seconds. This command can be verbal, acoustic, visual or automatic.
- (4) Order: If you are finished, unload and show clear. At the end of the stage, the shooter unloads the gun and opens the slide maintaining the muzzle towards the targets.
- (5) Order: Gun is clear, hammer down, holster. The shooter closes the slide, pulls the trigger and puts the gun in the holster.
- (6) Order: Range is clear. Shooters and Range Officers can check the scores.

b. Count

- (1) Standard Exercises (fixed time).
 - Fixed time: sum of the points, minus the penalties. No penalty for the misses.
 - Each shot after the stop will cause a penalty of 5 points.
 - Each extra hit will cause a penalty of 10 points. The higher hits will be considered valid.
- (2) Comstock Count Exercises (unlimited time)
 - the Hit Factor is computed as: sum of the points, minus the penalties, divided by the time. The stage points shall be computed as: maximum available stage points, multiplied by the shooter's hit factor, divided by the best hit factor.
 - Each miss will cause a penalty of 10 points.
- (3) Each target is considered to be impenetrable. The hits that can be determined to have previously pierced another target are not counted.
- (4) The minimum score for a stage is zero
- (5) The shooter is responsible of the correctness of the score, together with the score-keeper. After the score form has been signed by the shooter, it becomes a match document and can not be changed.
